Pacifica Council Gets Merit Plan Tonight

Long Delayed City Project

Pacifica's long-awaited Merit Personnel System ordinance will be introduced at Wednesday's council meeting, and final action on the compromise proposal is expected at the next regular council session, City Manager C. W. Masonheimer indicated today.

The ordinance formulated over a period of several months by the personnel advisory board, two employee associations and the city manager, represents a compromise arrangement acceptable to all the various factions, according to Masonheimer.

Probably the most controversial provision of the new ordinance is a section dealing with back pay for employes suspended in connection with a criminal offense, then exonerated by the courts.

Under the special clause, the city reserves the right to withhold back pay in such an instance even though the defendent involved has been found not guilty in a criminal court.

"This provision is intended to protect the city from the possibility of an employee deliberately delaying court proceedings in such an instance in order to collect back pay without having worked," the city manager said.

"Also, there is the possibility that the individual involved in such a case may have committed violations other than the criminal offense, and these other violations could be sufficient for dismissal," he said.

If such a case should arise, the final decision on whether or not back pay should be awarded will rest with the city manager, under terms of the new ordinance.

Mayor Grace McCarthy and members of the council recommended several changes in the original draft of the ordinance, and the personnel advisory board, Employees Association directors, Firefighters Association and city manager have concurred with most of these recommendations.

Councilmen inserted changes excepting division chiefs from the competitive examination procedure, and recommended that the personnel advisory board continue to consist of seven members instead of being reduced to five, as proposed in the original ordinance draft.

The council favored the larger personnel advisory board "because of the desirability of a wide range of citizen involvement in the city's affairs," Masonheimer said.

A section giving the personnel commission subpoena powers was also deleted from the original ordinance on the advice of the city attorney.

The attorney felt subpoena powers "would have more legal basis" if reserved for the city clerk, Masonheimer said.

The new ordinance is based upon a California League of Cities model ordinance, but also contains some provisions "for the specific needs of Pacifica," the manager said.

"In general, it will assure city employees of reasonable job security and fair treatment in such matters as promotions, demotions and disciplinary actions," he said.

"At the same time, it does not overlook the responsibilities which accompany these rights to fair and impartial treatment."

"The Merit Personnel System should not be regarded as simply a bill of rights for employes. The city must also be protected," he said.

The new ordinance will take effect 30 days after final adoption.

ABAG Scandal Sweeps Counties

Member Cities Taking Wait-And-See Stand

By FRANK LaPIERRE

The disappearance of Thomas Nelson Truax, assistant to the director of ABAG, two weeks ago may be the straw that broke the camel's back, critics of the nine county association feel.

But most member cities and counties are taking a cautious "wait and see" attitude in the wake of a scandal that has even caused embarrassment to certain agencies in Washington.

With Truax, alias Troy Nelson Thompson, went the accounting of almost $550,000 in Association of Bay Area Government (ABAG) funds and investigators feel the matter will likely never be cleared up until the former ABAG official is apprehended. (He was fired on February 10 after charges were leveled against him for embezzlement).

Auditors from Main & LaFrenz of Oakland are now conducting a special audit of ABAG's books, while attorney Arthur Harris of Berkeley is looking into the legal aspects of the case. Until such time as these reports are completed (perhaps within ten days) no one is certain exactly how much money is missing, where it went or how it was taken.

These same parties are not even sure who will be responsible for paying back the money lost. While some officials of ABAG maintain the U.S. Government must re-issue the checks because they were pilfered from the mails between the Department of Housing and Urban Renewal (Hud), and the local agency, still others feel ABAG's member cities are responsible for making up any losses incurred. There are some who have condemned certain banks for their part in the matter.

ABAG is the 91 cities and eight counties that make up the association, including San Mateo County and its member cities.

To date this much is known:

Truax (or Thompson, as he was known in gambling circles in Nevada), using dummy companies and duel credit cards and driver licenses, allegedly shortstopped some half-million dollars in federal monies and incoming dues from member cities, depositing these funds in personal and business bank accounts.

In San Mateo County, for example, dues unaccounted for and apparently embezzled amounted to $2,725; a breakdown discloses the money came from Burlingame ($411); Redwood City ($860); Daly City ($919) and San Bruno ($535).

ABAG also owes the Bay Area Transportation Study Association (BATS) some $147,000 for studies now underway.

Until the realization that an official of ABAG could, and apparently did, make off with certain funds, most member cities did not know the association had the responsibility of disseminating funds for various projects.

Like Daly City, which withdrew from ABAG last year and was forced back into it on threat of not receiving certain money needed for a General City Plan, these members thought ABAG was nothing more than a "clearing house" for project design and would only study a proposal comment on it and pass it on to HUD for direct funding.

"This is what we would normally do," executive director Warren Schmid said. "Only in certain cases would ABAG receive funds and pay directly for these special services — BATS is the only one at this time."

Schmid described ABAG as a sort of "middle man" between HUD and special agencies such as BATS.

"ABAG is a general planning agency and BATS is a special study agency. HUD recognizes ABAG as a regional association and uses our services to avoid duplication in funding," Schmid explained.

For example; if Redwood City requests a grant from the Federal Government to conduct a study of the city's General Plan, it would first send its request to ABAG which would, in turn, comment on it and forward the request to HUD. HUD would fund the money directly to Redwood City — not to ABAG.

Only in special instances has money been dispatched to ABAG from HUD. And this, together with the annual dues from member cities, was the funds Truax allegedly embezzled over the past two years, using a complex system of bookkeeping (called a "lapping" or "inverted pyramid" system), ingenuity and confidence.

The Federal Government's system of isolating itself from outside auditors has been blamed, in part, for the success of the venture.

Last June, auditors from Main & LaFrenz checked the ABAG books and failed to find that a HUD allotment check for $399,649 — destined for BATS — had been diverted.

In private business, a periodic check with persons doing business with a firm is considered routine, but Federal regulations prevent this. Had the auditors been able to accomplish this seemingly routine task, the shortage would have been disclosed immediately.

The HUD money, subject of inquiries from both Schmid and BATS, was cleverly covered up and entered on the credit side of the ABAG ledger accounts last June.

Actually HUD had sent the check in early April.

Federal agencies only open their books to Federal auditors, and ABAG is not a full-fledged governmental body — yet.

★ ★ ★ Truax Led 2 Lives

Thomas Nelson Truax, son of an official with the U.S. Department of Commerce in Redding, was an honor gradute in political sciences from San Jose State, an intelligent and dedicated worker for ABAG, according to his associates.

Troy Nelson Thompson, head of Thompson Enterprises and T & R Enterprises in Berkeley, was a "high roller" who was often seen in the company of beautiful women, according to Las Vegas gambling sources.

Both names belong to the same person — Truax, assistant to the executive director of the Association of Bay Area Governments, officed at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley.

On the afternoon of February 8, Truax, alias Thompson, stepped off a private jet owned by (Howard) Hugh's Tool Company (Alamo Airways), which he chartered in Las Vegas for $1,000, stepped into his car at Oakland Municipal Airport and disappeared.

With him went accounting for some $500,000 in ABAG funds.

In the East Bay, Truax was considered by his boss, Warren Schmid, as a devoted, hard-working individual and by his associates as a "family man." He lived a seemingly happy married life with his schoolteacher wife of three years, Chery, at 1917 Delaware Street in Berkeley — a $160 per month middleclass home.

He owned two modest cars, had been with ABAG for four years, made $218 weekly and had what was considered a "bright future" in government.

Las Vegas sources told this reporter "Thompson" was a "high roller" who concentrated on his favorite games of Chemin de Fer and blackjack, paid his debts when he lost and gave out high "tokes" (or tips).

He first appeared on the Las Vegas scene at Caesar's Palace Casino on The Strip some ten months ago and began establishing a credit rating around town.

Serramonte Park Plan Is Approved

Construction of a new 21-acre park at Serramonte will begin soon, it was announced Monday night.

The Daly City council accepted the location for the new facility during Monday night's session and informed the development's engineer, E. V. Schulhauser, to proceed with grading of the property.

Tht park will be located between Gellert, Callan, Hickey and St. Francis boulevards and will contain the normal park recreational facilities in addition to a library and fire station.

Decision to build the station and library in the immediate area of the park was based on a recommendation of Recreation Director Charles (Chuck) Vincent who informed the council such facilities tend to discourage vandalism.

Several acres will also be used as "tot lots" the council was informed by assistant city manager David Rowe.

Rowe said the park site was presented to the city free of charge as part of the original Serramonte annexation agreement with the city.

In other action Monday, the council:

—Approved a use permit for construction of a "professional" building at the southeast corner of Southgate Drive and Escuela Circle. The council had Edeliee tabled the same request when the proposed 5,000 square foot building was termed a "medical dental" facility.

Some council members felt construction of a medical-dental facility in this area would conflict with a much larger medical facility also planned for the area and had turned the original request down.

—Approved a use permit for operation of a U-Haul truck and trailer service at 7200 Mission street requested by Walter Martinson and John Pardella.

—Approved a use permit, filed by the Johnston Sign Company, to erect a sign at 7098 Mission Street with the stipulation the sign will not be installed in such a manner as to create a nusiance to adjoining property.

—Approved a use permit filed by the Standard Oil Company to install a pole sign at 2089 Junipero Serra Boulevard.

—Approved a use permit filed by Wonderlite Neon Products Company to install a double-faced sign at 2505 Geneva Avenue. The permit was granted on condition it conform with existing agreements concerning such signs entered into between the city and State Highway Division. (It will not be visible from the Junipero Serra Freeway).

—Granted a use permit to Leo Rossi and Sal DeLucca to conduct a motorcycle sales, service and rental shop at 2155-57 Junipera Serra Boulevard and to erect six signs.

Contest For Judge Reisch By McKenna

Competition for Superior Judge Conrad B. Reisch in the June 4 primary election was practically assured yesterday when John M. McKenna, a San Mateo lawyer, paid a $250 filing fee to run for the position.

Others to take out election papers yesterday and today included E. Wallace Esler and Marshall S. Mayer, who will vie for the Democratic nomination in the Twenty-sixth Assembly District.

McKenna, who has a general law practice in San Francisco, went further yesterday than he did in 1960 when he declared his intention to oppose Municipal Judge Marcel Biscay but did not actually file for the election.

Reisch, former city attorney of Brisbane and Pacifica, was appointed by Governor Reagan last month and was sworn into office only three weeks ago. Allison M. Rouse, the deputy district attorney who was appointed and sworn in with Reisch, faces the prospect of being opposed in the June election by Municipal Judge Charles Becker of Daly City. Becker filed a declaration of intention to run against Rouse but has not paid his filing fee yet. The period for filing extends to 5 p.m. March 22.

Esler, a Redwood City public accountant, and Mayer, a deputy state attorney general who is heading up the Thomas Truax investigation, are only two of four Democrats who filed declarations last week. Others were Stanley F. Wiseman, a Redwood City technical editor, and Edward J. Kenney, a San Carlos contractor.

They will be competing for the right to oppose the Republican incumbent, Carl Britschgi, in the November general election.

ACCIDENT

Branko Reidarich, 36, 790 Linden Avenue, San Bruno, was treated at Peninsula hospital Saturday evening for neck injuries suffered in an auto accident at Junipero Serra and Nineteenth Avenue in San Francisco. He was released after emergency care.

Westlake To Continue War On Boundary

"It is our intention to continue our vigorous opposition" to the re-alignment of Westmoor High School attendance boundaries, Dr. Sanford A. Marcus has informed Jefferson High School District Supt. Edward Morgan.

In a letter to Morgan this week, Dr. Marcus — recognized as the leader of a group of Westlake area residents who fought the re-drawing of lines prior to a trustee decision to follow Morgan's recommendations — said his committee nas six "grounds" for continuing the fight.

He listed them as:

"Unreasonable boundaries" that will "impose unfair and discriminatory burdens on certain geographic areas."

"Costs of busing will strain the already overburdened budget of the high school district."

The plan "will sharply reduce" the attendance at Jefferson High while "forcing the students at Westmoor to endure double sessions" during the school year 1968-69.

Morgan had proposed and trustees subsequently approved having Serramonte High School on the Westmoor campus until 1969, when the new school is to be ready for occupancy.

The plan "raises the issue of school integration in a district where non-Caucasion students comprise less than four per cent of the high school student population.

"Thus, by implication," Dr. Marcus stated, "there has been an attempt to silence our opposition on the false premise that we are prejudice.

"we maintain that this posture of anti-bigotry . . . does an injustice to those of us who are legitimately concerned with problems of discrimination," he said.

"It is our contention that Serramonte High School is falsely and improperly named, and that it bears no relation to, nor will it ever serve the housing development of that name.

"Our most serious concern is for the utter disregard shown the residests of this district by the high school board. It is a test of democracy in a community to measure the responsiveness of these elected officials to the taxpayers who have enthused the education of their children to them.

"Where this responsiveness ceases to exist, we must either relinquish the principle of local control of our educational establishments or reconsider whether our present elected officials are serving us properly. As a last resort this may be the only way we can force a delay and review of a plan whose merits we seriously question," Dr. Marcus concluded.

The group Dr. Marcus spearheaded at a meeting of trustees two weeks ago when action to continue with re-alignment was taken asked then for a minimum of 60 days in which to study the proposals.

S.S.F. Man Kills Self

The death of Willie Adams, 42, of 68 Calvert, South San Francisco, the father of five who was pronounced dead on arrival at Mary's Help Hospital in Daly City Friday, was listed as an apparent suicide from an overdose of sleeping tablets by the coroner's office today.

According to Coroner's Investigator Robert Cawley, when Adams' daughter came home yesterday afternoon she reported her father, who had been drinking, asked, "Have you ever seen anybody commit suicide?" She said she thought nothing of it at the time, however.

About two hours later, Adams' wife, Norma, found her husband unconscious in a kneeling position with his face down in the hall. Empty bottles which had contained tuinal sleeping tablets and librium, a tranquilizer, were found in the house, Cawley reported.

Pick Weman On D.C. Board

In an unanimous vote Monday the Daly City council named William Weman to replace ailing Joseph Schultz on the Personnel Board.

Councilman Frank Pacelli nominated Weman, a member of the San Mateo County Housing Authority and vice president of the Serramonte homeowners' Association, to the post.

Schultz had been on the board for the past six years. His term expired last February.

Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett commended Schultz for his contribution to the city and noted, "It would not be fair, because of his recurring injury, to allow him to continue on—even though he has expressed a desire to do so."

Schultz suffered a knee injury in World War II and recently underwent surgery at Fort Miley Veterans' Hospital. He had been absent from his post for several months.

Award Silver Star To Marine Major

Major William F. H. U'Ren, Jr., United States Marine Corps, 360 Poplar Avenue, San Bruno, has received the Silver Star Medal for conspicuous gallantry in action in Vietnam, according to word from Oakland Naval Hospital, where he arrived for treatment February 1.

Major U'Ren, 31, was operations officer for the First Battalion, Seventh Marines, First Marine Division, near DaNang, when the action that earned him the Silver Star and cost him his right leg took place.

On 13 January Major U'Ren, with his battalion commander and two engineering officers were on a reconnaissance patrol in search of rocket launch sites. Having previously served in the area as a company commander, Major U'Ren was familiar with the terrain and well aware that the area had been heavily mined by the Viet Cong.

While inspecting a site, the San Bruno officer saw some of the patrol start down a trail he knew was heavily mined.

"Disregarding his own safety, he shouted a warning, unhesitatingly ran through the brush, and threw himself in front of the lead man, placing his own body with arms outstretched between his companions and the enemy explosive device. As the mine detonated he received the full force of the explosion. Although he had multiple shrapnel wounds to his body, left arm, and both legs, he courageously crawled toward the other wounded members of the patrol to attend to their needs and directed them safely away from the mined area. Wounds to his right leg later necessitated amputation above the knee. By his selfless determination to protect his companions, resolute courage despite shock and intense pain from his own wounds and his unfaltering dedication to duty, Major U'Ren was undoubtedly instrumental in preventing additional Marine casualties and upheld the highest traditions of the Marine Corps and the United States Naval Service," the citation accompanying the Silver Star Medal stated.

The wounded officer had been in Vietnam five months when he was injured.

Major U'Ren was graduated with honors from the University of California, Berkeley, in 1958 and was subsequently commissioned in the Marine Corps. He was a member of Capuchino High School's first graduating class and attended the College of San Mateo before entering the University of California.

He and his wife, the former Miss Marie Tyler of Millbrae, have two children, William Tyler, 4, and Christine, 16 months.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. H. U'Ren, Sr., lived at the Poplar Avenue address until last July, when they moved to 2365 Stratford Drive, San Jose. They have a second son, Captain Nicholas U'Ren, U.S. Air Force, stationed in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Office Theft In Daly City

The Daly City Truck Sales Co., office on Mission Street was burglarized sometime Wednesday night, police said, and $168 was reported missing from the register.

Officers said entrance to the building was gained through forcing open the office door.

Taken along with the cash were keys to about 50 trucks parked on the company lot.

Double Life Foiled Police

Truax visited the casino "at least once a month" and was not a loser, although a heavy bettor.

"He broke even more often than he lost, and he gave out 'tokes' using the casino's money," our source confided this week.

Described also as a "perfect gentleman" who abided by all gambling rules, he worked his way into a top credit rating bracket ($50,000). This high credit rating, coupled with a "snoopy" news reporter, led to Truax's downfall.

Although Las Vegas sources claim Truax "was never in deep" he reportedly lost some $30,000 to the Palace and was given a deadline to pay off the debt — February 8.

Truax is accused of "diverting" federal funds and certain membership dues to special bank accounts established in the Bay Area using ABAG's name. From these accounts he would draw off money, apparently for the purpose of financing his high living episodes in Nevada.

Exactly how Truax "pulled off" his masquerade is still a mystery, one which has even the experts stumped — at least for the time being.

This much is known, albeit sketchy:

Allegedly forging signatures of ABAG officials, Truax short-stopped an incoming HUD check for some $400,000. He converted the sum into five cashier's checks, depositing one check in a commercial ABAG account; one check into an ABAG account (in San Francisco); and the remaining three checks into "phony" ABAG accounnts he had set up in three different East Bay banks.

Truax also established two accounts for his "Thompson" businesses and remitted funds from the phony ABAG accounts to each one of these two accounts. His credit ratings were based on his two "Thompson" accounts, which usually contained ample funds.

A Las Vegas source said "Thompson" listed Truax as a credit reference and was contacted during the normal course of checking his rating at both the banks and the ABAG office itself.

To add to this somewhat ironic situation, Truax was contacted by a member of the Nevada State Gaming Commission, Ray Coon, to discuss an incident in which an owner of a Las Vegas casino gambled with Truax — a matter which the commission frowns on in most cases.

Truax and Coon (who thought he was talking with Thompson) discussed the matter over lunch in Oakland.

According to Asst. Atty. Gen. Marshall Mayer, assigned to investigate the case, Truax had apparently used incoming funds to cover up shortages on a "lapping" system; that is, using a $50,000 check to cover a previously embezzled $40,000, for example.

How long Truax led this dual life is also still under investigation. Some officials guess he had involved himself with the coverup for two years.

Law enforcement agents were waiting to arrest Truax when he reported in sick on February 8. Mayer, armed with a warrant for the suspect's arrest, located his car at Oakland Airport and staked it out.

On that date Truax, after securing two loans from a San Francisco bank using the ABAG savings account as collateral, flew to Las Vegas via commercial jetliner, cashed a check for $50,000 at Caesar's Palace, either lost (or paid a back debt) of some $30,000 and started gambling.

Later in the day, reportedly with some $44,000 in his pocket, he left Las Vegas via private jet and returned to Oakland.

Bail Is Set At $10,000 For D.C. Man

Clifford Thomas, a young Daly City man accused of the kidnap-rape of two teen-age girls on San Bruno Mountain February 10, was held to answer in Superior Court on two counts each of four charges in a municipal court hearing Friday.

Thomas, an unemployed mechanic, is scheduled to appear for arraignment in Redwood City at 9 a.m. February 8 to answer charges of rape, kidnap, sex perversion and robbery.

Bail was set at $10,000 at the preliminary hearing Friday.

The two alleged rape victims, 18 and 19 years old, Friday described a terror ride up the deserted mountain which culminated with threats upon their lives, repeated rapes and other indignities.

The girls said their attacker forced them to disrobe in the back seat of his automobile after firing a rifle he carried out the window "to show that it was loaded."

The rapist "babbled about the Viet Cong" all through the night the girls said, and fired the gun into the darkness several times.

He released them near their home after the ordeal.

ABAG Badly Shook By Missing Funds

Governments (ABAG) was formed as a volunteer organization in January 1961 to insure against duplication in regional studies on such matters as air pollution, water pollution and transportation.

It has been the target of repeated attacks from critics since that time. These critics charge ABAG has not only over-stepped its bounds in many instances, but is asking for more powers that would take away the already limited powers of city governments.

Others, however, concede that "some sort of" regional government is necessary in our modern society to cope with problems on a regional basis.

Last fall the State Legislature authorized a committee to study the feasibility of this regional government concept and named Assemblyman John Knox to head it.

The committee is expected to report back to the Legislature with its recommendations on whether to continue ABAG dissolve it or form a totally new association.

The embezzlement of some half-million dollars in funds from ABAG, allegedly by the assistant to the director, Thomas Nelson Truax, has hit the association at a time when it is already suffering from internal strife over proposed creation of a permanent agency and raising of annual dues from member cities.

ABAG wants the power to not only screen planning requests from member cities, but also to tax and have powers of eminent domain — much to the chagrin of many city officials.

One of the most outspoken of ABAG's critics is Daly City Councilman Frank Pacelli who talked the city into walking out of ABAG last year.

In no uncertain terms, Daly City was informed by the association that unless they retraced their steps back into the ABAG fold they would lose out on a $105,000 HUD grant needed for a General Plan study in the city.

Pacelli said the embezzlement scandal "came as little surprise to me.

"For months we've been yelling about the sloppy methods used in running that organization — no minutes kept, poor accounting of funds and a general breakdown in running an organization in an efficient manner," Pacelli said.

He said if ABAG maintained the same tight controls over its funds as cities do "this would never have happened . . . it's what we get for having a remote regional government hanging over us."

Although Pacelli and D. C. Mayor Bernard Lycett point out ABAG is in serious trouble as a result of the recent scandal, it will "weather the storm."

If ABAG is dissolved, cities fear the Federal and State governments will step in and fill the vacuum.

What few controls city delegates have over ABAG would be completely wiped out if the latter occurred, officials caution.

Pacelli feels all member cities are responsible for what happened and says, "we should make a thorough investigation of the administrative staff from top to bottom."

Others have voiced this same suggestion and have charged that ABAG's President Robert G. Miller (San Jose) is "whitewashing" the matter by pointing the finger of blame "in every direction but the right one."

Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan asked, "How can this situation happen?"

"I'll tell you! There are no local or state regulations governing ABAG. They are not responsible to the cities and there is no law or code governing their operation," Ryan explained.

He said all a person had to do was witness what happened to Daly City when they asked for Federal money for a planning study.

"They withdrew from ABAG and couldn't get the money until they were forced to rejoin the organization," Ryan said.

"The Assembly investigation (which Ryan is a part of) should not only investigate the procedures that lead to this scandal, but the entire operation of a volunteer organization that forces cities and counties to join — or else," Ryan said.

ABAG gets its power from a California Joint Exercise of Powers Act which allows cities to contract with one another.

Mrs. Fassler First In Election Line

Supervisor Jean Fassler of Pacifica was first today to pay filing fees for the June 4 primary election, thanks to her number one supporter, husband Joseph Fassler.

The supervisor's husband established his position as first in line outside County Clerk John A. Bruning's office at 6:30 a.m. As it turned out, he could have slept an hour or so later because he was still the only one in line when the office opened at 8.

There was a purpose behind the desire to be first. Mrs. Fassler was having breakfast at the Hillsdale Inn in San Mateo with her 30 sponsors. As soon as he obtained the nomination papers, Fassler took then to San Mateo, where the sponsors signed. They were then returned to Bruning's office to make Mrs. Fassler first to officially establish her candidacy.

Other board members running for re-election this year are James V. Fitzgerald and William M. Werder.

Fitzgerald was second to pay the $278.52 filing fee this morning.

Congressman Paul N. McCloskey, who was elected in a special vote last December to succeed the late J. Arthur Younger, is one of those whose name will be on the ballot. Any resident of East Palo Alto, which was taken into the Ninth Congressional District last year, who wants to file against the incumbent, Don Edwards, must do so in Redwood City.

Two judges, Superior Judge Frank W. Rose and Municipal Judge Paul Hupf, will be unopposed because no one filed declarations of intention last week, as required of all judicial and legislative candidates. Superior Judges Allison M. Rouse and Conrad B. Reisch may face opposition, however.

Churches Slate Mid-Week Rites

Holy Cross Lutheran Church and Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Pacifica and Westlake Lutheran Church in Daly City will cooperate in a series of mid-week services observing the pre-Easter season of Lent. The first service will be held March 6, at 7:30 p.m. at Westlake Lutheran Church, 222 Avalon Drive in Daly City.

Lent is the name given to the period of preparation climaxing in the chief celebration of the Christian Church, Easter, which falls on April 14 this year.

Traditionally, in the Christian Church, Lent has been a period for increased religious reflection. The Wednesday evening series of the coastside Lutheran churches will place this traditional emphasis in a modern contert by focusing on the question, "Who Am I?" On successive Wednesday evening, through motion picture, drama, and sermonic presentation, the following themes will be considered: I Am Man; I Choose; I Suffer; I Am Unique; I Am Free; and I Am a Man in Christ. On March 6 and 13, the services will be held at Westlake Lutheran Church; on March 20 and 27 at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, and on Arpil 3 and April 11 at Holy Cross Lutheran Church. The public is invited. Further details may be obtained by calling any of the three church offices.

Special Rites For Lenten Season Set

Members of St. Veronica's Catholic parish in South San Francisco will be special guests at the first of weekly Lenten services at nearby St. Elizabeth's Episcopal church March 6.

Fr. Ferdinand D. Saunders, vicar, will celebrate the 8 p.m. Holy Communion service at the church on Country Club Drive.

At the conclusion of the service, he will give an instructional commentry on the liturgy. Parisioners of both churches will gather informally in the church hall afterwards.

Among the church members at St. Ilizabeth's who will greet guests are Mrs. Jack Dowling, social relations chairman, and the Mmes. Howard Johnston, G. D. Monkman and Dorothea Burgess.

This service is included in a four-part series planned by St. Veronica's social justice committee. The other three Tuesday evening events at the parish are a pro and con debate on the guaranted annual income on March 12, a demonstration Mass celebrated by Rev. R. J. Brophy, S. J., on March 19, and a sample Paschal Meal on March 26.

Rev. Paul Coleman is pastor at St. Veronica's church. Martin Breuer is chairman of the committee.

Adult Class Planned At SSF Church

Reverend Irvin Tweet, pastor of the Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church, South San Francisco, announced Lutheran Information Class for adults to begin March 3 at 7 o'clock.

A seven-week series in form of lectures and discussions on the Lutheran faith, starts with the topic "The Sacred Sixty-six.' Along with lecture and discussion, films will be used.

Anyone who is interested in knowing about the Lutheran church and its teachings, may ecome to the church, Sunday evening, March 3.

The Information class for adults will conclule on April 21.

Harmony will be the theme of the evening at the Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church Women's first meeting of 1968 on Thursda.y

The executive officers will be hostesses to the women members and friends of Our Redeemer's at a 6:30 p.m. dinner at the church at 609 Southwood Drive, South San Francisco.

The program will feature special music by Mrs. William Harter and Mrs. John Maleck, as well as a skit "Perfect Harmony" which outlines the year's study and work of the organization. A film, 'O God, Who Is Like Thee?" will climax the evening's presentation.

DALY CITY THEFT

Theft of a combination recored player-radio, two television sets, and an undisclosed amount of cash was reported to Daly City police by E. D. Wallace, who said the items were taken from 57 Knowles Street, Apartment No. 4, sometime Wednesday.

2 Missionary Speakers For Westlake Baptist

The Rev. Harris Youngquist, missionary for the past 15 years to Japan, under the Baptist General Conference Foreign Mission Board, will be the guest speaker at the mid-week service of the Westside Baptist Church, Wednesday in the Fairmont West Recreation Center on Palmetto Street in the Fairmont tract of Pacifica.

The service will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Youngquist's special thrust in this past term of service has been in establishing new churches. Also he has served as the director of a Christian literature concern for the Baptist General Conference.

Friday at the Fairmont West Recreation Center, the Rev. Dana Larson, until recently missionary under the Baptist General Conference in Assam, India, will be the guest speaker.

This service begins at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Larson, his wife and seven of their children along with two other missionary families serving in the North Bank area of Assam, were asked in November of 1967 by the Indian government to leave the country.

Other medical and evangelistic personnel serving under the Baptist General Conference, have been granted a limited time to serve.

Mrs. Larson, a nurse, has conducted leper clinics in that area of Assam, and she and her husband have established two dispensaries.

These missionaries along with 11 other conference foreign missionaries are in Northern California Baptist Conference churches during this week, conducting missionary services.

On March 2, at 8 a.m., the Men's Prayer Fellowship will meet at the church parsonage, 3370 Longview Drive, San Bruno.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss . . . and grow more hair.

For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment for both men and women, that is not only stopping hair loss . . . but really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If they believe that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair . . . now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc. will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them the information listed below. All inquiries are answered confidentially, by mail and without obligation. Adv.

A LOOK INTO THE YEAR AHEAD

The color which everyone in the industry is talking about is YELLOW — pineapple-yellow, lemon-yellow, and yellow in every shade. It's expected to be the big color in everything from housewares to shower curtains, from floor coverings to wall papers.

Yellow always has been a bright, cheerful, sunny color and its re-discovery and abundant use will "brighten the corner where you are."

During the year ahead you can expect to see more wide-spread use of plastics in every form from plexiglass to polyurethane in chairs, tables and many other furniture items, not to imitate already existing design, but to create forms only these materials can take.

With manufacturers emphasizing more comfort, better mechanisms and decorator-designed styles and fabrics, sofa-beds will be used in almost every home and apartment. Their appearance has so improved that even many dealers cannot tell a sofa-bed from any other attractive sofa—just by looking at it.

Kitchen carpet will be more widely used than ever before with plaid and ceramic tile patterns leading the way. Paisley patterns in carpets, upholstery fabrics and wall-papers will enjoy a revival.

Whatever new furnishings you like, you'll like shopping with us.

Drive-in Robbed

An armed robber held up Ann's Drive-In Restaurant on Francisco Boulevard in Pacifica Thursday night, and escaped with approximately $140, police reported.

Officers said the man entered the combination restaurant and store about 10 p.m., and ordered clerk George Townsend to hand over the cash register receipts.

The bandit was carrying a .38-caliber revolver, police said.

The robber was in his twenties, of medium height and build, and wore a green jacket and dark trousers, according to police.

Colma Flood Control Delay for 7 Years

Unless funds are raised on the local level by the Colma Creek Flood Control District, South San Francisco residents will have to wait "at least another seven or eight years" for relief from annual flooding.

This was the consensus opinion of state, federal, county and city authorities at a public hearing recently, after U.S. Army Corps of Engineers spokesmen reiterated the lengthy procedure involved in federal "small projects."

Israel Steinberg, chief of project planning for the Corps of Engineers San Francisco branch, told a crowd of about 200 Francisco Terrace residents they will have to be "patient" while the flood control project makes its way through a preliminary survey, congressional hearings and, hopefully, final approval.

Steinberg said a geological survey of the Colma Creek situation is on "active status," but even the survey is not scheduled for completion until the spring of 1969.

The Corps of Engineers regional office has tentatively recommended a $2.2 million program, which calls for state, county and local matching funds of approximately $1.2 million.

However, there is some question as to whether or not Francisco Terrace, the area inundated with flood waters January 29 and 30, would be directly benefited by any project undertaken by the Corps of Engineers.

"We are primarily concerned with Colma Creek itself," Steinberg said. "The Francisco Terrace situation is more of a local problem, brought about by inadequate drain pipes in the area."

But South San Francisco Public Works Director Louis Goss took exception to this view.

"Our studies have shown conclusively that the flooding conditions in Francisco Terrace are brought about by the inadequate flow of Colma Creek," Goss said.

In any event, homeowners at the Tuesday night meeting appeared in no mood to wait "seven or eight years" for alleviation of the problem, and a suggestion by Councilmen Frank Bertucelli that both "interim and long-range solutions" be considered met with approval.

Bertucelli, who was mayor when the present Corps of Engineers survey was begun last year, called for an "interim proposal for immediate relief of flooding conditions" within the next 60 days.

Any such short-range program would almost certainly have to be financed locally, possibly through a bond issue such as that on the San Bruno ballot for April 9.

County Supervisor James Fitzgerald said the board would "certainly be willing to consider authorizing a bond election, if residents of the Colma Creek zone indicate they desire it."

The Colma Creek Flood Control Zone includes South San Francisco and portions of Daly City, Colma, San Bruno, Pacifica and San Mateo County, a 10,000-acre area comprizing the Colma Creek watershed.

However, only South San Francisco, in the lower reaches of the tributary, has a flooding problem, and this situation would likely present difficulties in passing a bond issue election.

"While South San Francisco suffers all the damage from the flooding, only about 4,000 acres of the watershed area is actually within our city," City Attorney John Noonan said.

"We are bearing the burden of being flooded by the entire area, and the entire area must share the liability for South San Francisco's flood damage," he said.

Noonan said the entire problem of Colma Creek flooding is related to development of subdivisions, highways and other surface construction in the watershed area.

John Sherman, an attorney representing about 30 South San Francisco homeowners in their flood damage claims, suggested that all building permits throughout the watershed area should be withheld "until our problem is solved."

Man Shot In Daly City

A 21-year-old victim of a gunshot wound of the abdomen was reported in fair condition at Mary's Help Hospital this morning following surgery.

Rudy Jiminez was admitted to the hospital at 10:10 p.m. Saturday night after he was allegedly shot by an acquaintance, Jack Nieve, in a Daly City apartment earlier in the evening.

Surgeons said the slug could not be removed at this time, and the victim was in the hospital's Intensive Care Unit.

According to police, Jiminez, whose address is not known, was visiting the home of Richard Gomez at 272 Abbot Street, Apartment 3, at the time of the shooting.

Although the victim has refused to cooperate with police, investigators pieced together this account of the incident:

Nieve, 19, of 233 Mosswood Drive, South San Francisco, while visiting the Gomez home found Jiminez toying with a .22-caliber revolver in the bedroom. Nieve subsequently took the gun away from Jiminez and, thinking it was unloaded, pointed it at Jiminez and pulled the trigger.

The gun went off and the slug tore into Jiminez' abdomen. The victim was taken to nearby Mary's Help Hospital for treatment.

During a search of the shooting scene police said they found a quantity of marijuana, some marijuana cigarettes, and marijuana cigarette paraphenalia, along with the revolver.

A Drug Suspect Nabbed at Fire

A fire that caused major damage to an old house on Vista Grande Street in Daly City Wednesday led to the arrest, on narcotics charges, of a 22-year-old Walnut Creek man whose actions at the scene of the blaze made fire department officials suspicious.

John McCollum of 1418 Carriage Street, Walnut Creek, was arrested by Daly City police following a foot-race with a patrolman, police said.

The fire was at 123 Vista Grande, near Santa Barbara Avenue, in an old frame structure, next to a similarly old wood frame church, identified by its sign as the Calvary Hills Missionary Church.

A fire department spokesman said the blaze had been going for some time before an unidentified man raced to a Daly City fire station a block away from the scene to report it.

As firemen worked to extinguish the blaze and to protect the church next to it, McCollum, — according to Battalion Chief Mel Hanson — attempted repeatedly to get inside the burning residence.

Hanson kept turning McCollum away and McCollum in turn continued his efforts to get inside — first through the front door, then the basement, and later a window, and finally through a grate in the floor.

McCollum was the only person showing an interest in the burning structure, firemen said.

A fire official who considered McCollum's actions suspicious, called in police patrolmen who were directing traffic in the area.

The policemen found what they said appeared to be a marijuana pipe, allegedly with a marijuana cigarette inside, in the living room of the two-story house.

The patrolman searched a suitcase in the basement and assertedly found a crockery bowl full of a substance believed to be marijuana.

In the kitchen, polce found rolled cigarettes, also believed to be marijuana and two smoking pipes, in addition to an opium pipe hidden on a pantry shelf.

Bottles of "suspect pills" also were discovered, police said.

Shortly after these discoveries, McCollum fled the scene, but he was apprehended and taken into custody after patrolmen chased him from Santa Barbara Avenue to the 6700 block of Mission Street, to the east.

Responding to the call at 4:20 p.m., firemen fought the blaze until 6:30 p.m.

Of undetermined origin, the fire apparently started in a rear bedroom. Firemen removed a box spring and a mattress that were destroyed by fire in that room.

Damage was estimated at $8,500 to the structure and $3,000 to contents.

Flame damage to the bedroom and kitchen was severe, a fire department source explained, with smoke damage heavy throughout the house.

Small Boy Gang Caught In Raid on Cookie Factory

Six small boys were arrested in South San Francisco Thursday afternoon after they allegedly burglarized a cookie factory, police reported.

Officers said the boys broke into the Mrs. Allison's Cookies plant at 513 Mayfair Avenue about 3:30 p.m. and removed $15 worth of cookies.

Six of the boys entered the building, police said, then distributed the loot to several youngsters outside.

They gained entrance to the building through a small opening around a sliding door, officers said.

Earlier Thursday, a 14-year-old and two 11-year-old boys were arrested after they were allegedly caught in the act of burglarizing the Alta Loma Junior High School.

A patrolman spotted one of the children climbing through a broken window at the school, police reports stated, and arrested all three at the scene.

Officers said the youths used a shoe to break out the window, and apparently intended to break into lockers in the school hallway.

Stabbing Suspect Held

Daly City police have arrested Vincent M. Hogan, suspect in a near-fatal stabbing in a Park Plaza apartment last December.

Another suspect in the incident, Robert Ryan, is still at large, police said.

According to reports, Ryan and Hogan allegedly broke into the apartment of Charles Urnst, also a resident of the apartment building at 200 Park Plaza, following a brief telephone argument and stabbed him seven times in the abdomen.

Urnst survived the attack following weeks of care at Mary's Help Hospital.

Police had been searching for both suspects since the stabbing.

Ryan's last known address was on North Mayfair in Daly City, police said.

Charges of burglary have been filed against both men.

Inflicting bodily harm during a burglary carries a five-year to life penalty upon conviction — a stiffer penalty than for attempted murder.

Details of the arrest were not available.

Hippie Kidnapping Suspect Is Nabbed

A hitchhiking hippie from South Carolina is in County General hospital today with two crushed vertebrae.

He is also accused of having kidnapped a San Francisco man, stolen his car, robbed him of watch and wallet.

The stolen car ended up slamming backwards into a power pole in Burlingame. Larry Corlino ended up in the hospital.

Police of four cities helped put him there.

San Francisco police report that August A. Sabella Jr., 25, 9 Forest Grove Avenue, Daly City, was driving south on Great Highway at about 1:45 a.m.

Near Fulton Avenue, he saw a hitchhiker in the rain. He stopped. The hitchhiker got in, and Sabella drove on.

Within moments, Sabella told San Francisco police, the hitchhiker said: "Stop the car."

Sabella stopped.

The hitchhiker threatened him, he said, and grabbed at the keys. Sabella pushed the hitchhiker away. The hitchhiker hit Sabella in the face, and Sabella got out of his car.

After a few moments, Sabella got back in, but soon the hitchhiker demanded his watch, then his wallet, and finally took control of the car near the San Francisco Police Department Pistol Range.

Near the Olympic Golf club, Sabella jumped from the car as they slowed for the Alemany and Skyline stoplight. His car roared away. Sabella pounded on a nearby resident's door until he woke the family and phoned police.

Daly City Police Officer Marty Lively reported that he met Sabella at Alemany and Skyline, and broadcast the alarm for the missing 1966 bright red Mustang.

Minutes later, Millbrae Police Officer Anthony J. Sully saw the red Mustang roar past and tailed it down El Camino Real at speeds reaching 90 miles an hour.

Burlingame Officer Charles Seril joined the chase, and said speeds hit 109-miles-an-hour. Seril's patrol car almost slamed into the bright red auto as he rounded the curve at Bellevue Avenue and found it pinwheeling around the intersection on the slick highway.

Then the car slammed backwards into a power pole. It hit so hard, the rear bumper wrapped completely around the pole and the ends met in back.

Corlino was ripped from the driver's seat, officers say, and thrown into the back seat.

Millbrae Officer Sully said Corlino did not appear to be injured, and was out of the car being held by Officer Seril when Sully arrived.

The suspect was uncooperative, officers said, and would not tell them his name.

Teamster Is Found Dead In D.C. Motel

A South San Francisco teamster, reportedly despondent over marital problems, was found dead in a Daly City motel Thursday.

The coroner's office was investigating the possibility that the victim, Richard D. Nunes, 31, of 156 Pecks Lane, died of a massive overdose of sleeping pills.

His body was found yesterday afternoon in a room at the Towne Motel, 3211 Geneva Avenue, where he checked in Sunday night. Coroner's investigators said he may have been dead for several days.

The victim's wife, Carol, told investigators that her husband apparently took 100 sleeping pills with him when he left the home Sunday night. She said he was upset because of her plans for a divorce.

Mrs. Nunes filed a missing person report with South San Francisco police Tuesday.

No suicide note was found.

Westmoor Represents Italy In Model United Nations

Fourteen Westmoorites who are members of the Junior Statesmen journeyed to U.C. Berkeley with their adviser, Alvin Wolf, to participate in the Model United Nations.

Representing Italy in the Model U.N., the Westmoor delegation, chaired by senior Greg Brewer, studied Itialy's past U.N. policies and decided against bringing a resolution to the conference.

The Philippine and Thailand Ambassadors to the U.N. started the U.N. session off on a thought-provoking level, as both gentlemen discussed problems in Southeast Asia.

Breaking up on Friday into five committees, all the U.N. delegates discussed five resolutions in these committees, with the idea of bringing one up for a vote at the Saturday General Session.

Westmoor chairman Greg Brewer, along with freshman Jim Musselwhite, attended the Political Security Committee, which focused its attention on U.S. intervention both in Vietnam and the world. The Czechoslovakian delegate sponsored the resolution brought by this committee to the General Session. The resolution dealing with condemnation of U.S. intervention in Vietnam and calling for U.S. withdrawal there, was defeated in the General Session.

The special Political Committee had Westmoor sophomore Tim Morton and freshman Kurt Hansen as participants. Their discussion centered around the Mideast crisis but their General Assembly motion calling for Israel to return all lands captured in the June war, was defeated.

Concerned with orbital control of nuclear weapons, the Nuclear Disarmament Committee, managed to get its resolution calling for more orbital control, passed by the General Assembly, in this committee included junior Marsha Glasser and sophomore Dan Kunst.

Junior Sue Fox and freshman Shelly Wolf served on the Social, Humanitarian, Cultural Committee, which concerned itself with help for the refugees. Their resolution calling for more effective refugee assistance passed the General Assembly.

Serving on the Special Study Committee, which included a study of integration problems were freshmen Jeff Bedford and Mike Lucchesi.

Greg Brewer, in commenting on the Model U.N., expressed satisfaction with the conference which gave the students further insight into the actual United Nations.

NELL NORTON (Sugar 'n Spice)

Cookie Tasting

Good morning, good cooks.

I've been testing and tasting some cookie recipes lately and I'd like to share them with you good cooks. I want to get them in the paper right away because I don't want to conflict with the Girl Scout Cookie Sale that starts in March. While I am a great believer in the pleasures and merits of home baking, I am also a strong supporter of the Girl Scout program and want to encourage you all to buy cookies from the little Brownies, Juniors Cadettes or Senior Scouts in your neighborhood.

These peanut butter cookies are so good that you can bake them today and they will be gone by this weekend thanks to your hungry brood. This recipe comes from my sister Mrs. Sherrill Banks, who is an excellent banker and a generous recipe sharer.

PEANUT BUTTER COOKIES

- 1 cup white sugar
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 cup shortening or margarine
- 3 cups flour
- 1 cup peanut butter
- 2 eggs
- 2 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream together the one cup each white sugar, brown sugar, shortening. Add the one cup peanut butter and blend well. Blend in the two eggs. Sift together the three cups flour and two teaspoons soda. Add dry ingredients to creamed mixture and mix. Add the one teaspoon vanilla and mix again.

Using a rounded teaspoonful of dough, roll into balls and place on lightly greased cookie sheet. Flatten by pressing with fork. Bake at 350 degrees for 10 to 12 minutes. Makes over six dozen cookies.

NOW I DON'T expect or want you to try all these recipes right away. (Remember the Girl Scouts.) But I hope you will save this column and give these cookie recipes a try some time later. This next recipe combines cornflakes, nuts, chocolate bits, and orange juice to make a cookie that is most tasty.

ORANGE CRUNCHIES

- ½ cup soft margarine
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1 egg
- 1 cup sifted flour
- 1½ teaspoon baking powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup orange juice
- 3 cups cornflakes
- ½ cup chopped nuts
- 1 pkg. chocolate bits

Blend the one-half cup shortening and the one cup sugar. Mixing until light and fluffy. Add the one teaspoon grated orange rind and the egg, beat well. Sift the one cup flour, one and one-half teaspoons baking powder and one-half teaspoon salt together; add to the creamed mixture alternately with the one-fourth cup orange juice, stirring after each addition. Fold in the 3 cups cornflakes (I crushed the cornflakes before I added them to the dough) and the one-half cup nuts and the package of chocolate bits.

Drop by teaspoonsful about 2 inches apart onto a greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees about 15 minutes. Remove from sheet immediately.

I can't remember how many this made, but I do recall that it was a generous amount.

☆ ☆ ☆

THESE CUPCAKES have all the advantages; easy to make, use nuts, raisins, and rolled oats, simple to bake in cupcake papers, sweet but not too sweet and don't need to be frosted. What more can we ask?

DO-FUNNIES

- 2 eggs
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup shortening
- 1 cup sour milk
- 1 teaspoon soda
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon nutmeg
- 2 teaspoon rolled oats
- 2 cups flour
- 1 cup raisins
- ½ cup chopped nuts

Cream together the one cup each sugar and shortening, add the two eggs and cream again. Sift together the two cups flour, one-half teaspoon each cinnamon and nutmeg and the one teaspoon soda, add these to the creamed mixture alternately with the one cup sour milk. Finally add the two cups rolled oats, one cup raisins and one-half cup chopped nuts. Blend.

Bake in cupcake papers in 350-degree oven about 25 minutes, test for doneness. Makes 2½ to 3 dozen cupcakes.

About two weeks ago I included a recipe for a vanilla sauce to serve over gingerbread. Suggesting that you good cooks use a ginerbread mix. Well, I've been called to task for not giving a recipe for this old favorite and therefore will finish the column with this very tasty offering.

SOFT GINGERBREAD

- ½ cup margarine
- ½ cup sugar
- 2 eggs—separated
- 1 teaspoon cloves
- 1 teaspoon ginger
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 2½ cups flour
- 1 cup molasses
- 1 teaspoon soda (dissolved in the boiling water)
- 1 cup boiling water

Cream the one-half cup margarine with the one-half cup sugar, beat until light and fluffy. Add the two well-beaten egg yolks. Sift together the one teaspoon each cloves, ginger, cinnamon and the two and one-half cups flour. Add to the creamed alternately with the one cup dark molasses and the one teaspoon soda which has been dissolved in the one cup boiling water. Fold in beaten egg whites.

Pour into a well greased 9x9x3-inch pan and bake in 350-degree oven until done, about 45 minutes.

This makes a generous amount and will serve 12 to 15. It's delish topped with applesauce or whipped cream or vanilla sauce. My gingerbread fanciers thought it was delicious plain.

THE WESTMOOR WHIRL

Two Westmoor FBL'ers Win Conference Honors

Westmoor students Mary Kirchman and Joanne Cop were winners in the annual Future Business Leaders of America Sectional Conference held in Anderson, in Shasta County.

The conference's purpose was to test the competence of business students in the areas of shorthand, typing, essays, public speaking, vocabulary, spelling and bookkeeping. Also included was selection of Mr. and Mrs. FBLA. They are the top two senior students at the conference chosen on the basis of a personal essay and interviews.

Seven Westmoor students went, Joanne Cop, Sue Keane, Joanne E. Jones, Linda Pettijohn, Linda La Douceur and Dave Matrinez. Sponsors accompanying the group were Mrs. Sharleen Mahali and Mrs. Connie Werner.

Mary Kirchman won a third place in typing. To qualify she had to take three, five-minute time writings. The best of the three was sent in to compete in the contest.

Winning alternate status in shorthand was Joanne Cop who had to transcribe two, 100 words - a - minute letters. The better of these also was chosen.

First, second and third place winners will now go on to the State conference, held in Disneyland on April 19, 20, 21. Alternates will go in the place of any winners unable to attend.

FBLA is a national organization among high school students. The organization has high school chapters which compete on sectional, state and national levels. Westmoor's chapter, which was organized two years ago, had attended last year's conference - competition, and placed two students in their first year of competition. They had invited observers to the conference at Terra Nova two years ago. After that conference, enthusiasm for forming a local chapter gained momentum and faculty sponsor, Mrs. Mahali was secured.

During the business part of the latest conference sophomore Dave Martinez was elected vice chairman for this Coast Section. His duties include assisting the vice president in organizing next year's conference; however, plans have been formulated to split this section into two sections, a North Coast and a Central Coast section, and then Dave would become vice president of the North Coast section.

Only FBLA members were allowed to compete. FBLA also paid all expenses, transportation, lodging and registration, except meals, which students paid for themselves. The Westmoor FBLA has been selling candy bars and organizing a student directory to defray club expenses.

AMIDST WAVING BANNERS, parades, yells and intermittent rainstorms, the junior class of Westmoor High proved "It's a Junior World" by triumphing over both upper and lower classmen, February 19-21, as winners of the 1968 Spirit Trophy.

Grecian-draped seniors, "tourist" juniors, scarecrow and tin-clad sophomores, and "babe" freshmen filled the courtyards and classes on "Grub Day."

"Theme Day" was highlighted by an intra-class volleyball tournament and a soap drive, both of which were won by the Junior class, headed by President Bob Joyce. Seniors, each holding a white flower, carried out their "Mythology" theme. Juniors paraded as representatives from countries "Around the World." Following the yellow-brick road with their "Wizard of Oz" theme, the sophomores wore yellow bricks upon their shoes. Illustrating their role as "Babes in Westmoorland" freshmen carried teddy bears and other stuffed animals.

"Spirit Week was designed to create competition between classes which would lead to an increase of spirit within the school for athletic competition and school projects," commented student body president Don Weiden following the final assembly. "All these things were accomplished, and more, with the additional drive for bars of soap to be donated to the Red Cross for distribution in local hospitals.

Last year, the Senior class of 1967 claimed the spirit victory.

Dollars Go Toward New Cap Attire

This is the amount raised by Cap Band banner girls and majorettes at a lasagne lunch served February 22 at the beach home of Mr. and Mrs. George Papadakis and family of San Bruno.

Chairman and general organizer of the benefit luncheon was banner girl, Maxine Papadakis. Hosting the affair and serving were banner girls, Sherry Trout, Jeanne Thomas, Cherri Seim, Gail Munnikhuysen, Carolyn Ross, Joan Jama, Karen Gotelli and Ginger Gabriel.

Majorettes contributing time, salads and cakes for the super lunch were Linda Hubbs, Sue Greenleaf, Barbara Siemon, Becky Heuton, Laurie Haxton, and Cathy Affrunti.

Opening their summer home in Pacifica, and assisting the young girls in the project were Mr. and Mrs. Papadakis and son, Anthony. Mrs. Papadakis, assisted by Mrs. Lou Cairo of Millbrae, made the delicious lasagne served to more than 50 persons.

Exchange Student From Holland Visits School

BY ALICE REICHERT

Nineteen-year-old Wim van Rijn, the American Field Service exchange student from Holland, visited Terra Nova last week. He stayed at the home of Mr. and and Mrs. Richard Sedley, whose sons Chris, a junior, and David, a freshmen, are T.N. students.

Most of Wim's year in America, six months which have already passed, has been spent with the John Olsen family on a ranch outside of Selma, California.

During his six years of primary school and six years of high school, Wim has studied six languages; English, Greek, French, German, Latin, and Dutch. He participated in school activities such as the Student Body Council, the Drama Club, and many school plays. Dutch schools do not have competition sports, but Wim is going out for tennis in Selma.

The first impression Wim received of Terra Nova was the terrible weather, but in spite of the wind and rain, he was impressed with T.N.'s architecture. "It's such a pretty school; really beautiful."

Mr. Campbell's humanities class is one of the classes Wim was most interested in. The most negative impressions Wim received of all American schools related to the lack of interest in school, and extra-curricular activities.

"We only have about two dances a year connected with school in Holland," he added. "Most of our entertainment is private parties and clubs, etc."

School spirit is a new thing to Wim, here, too. Having no school sports, there is no need for school spirit at Dutch schools.

THE JEFFERSON SCENE

Jeff, Oceana Pupils Meet

By WENDY WOOLERY

A few weeks ago, in accordance with Assistant Principal Ed Cereghino's desire to get our "informal" governing body going, the Human Relations Committee of Jefferson and the newly formed committee at Oceana met at Jeff.

The groups went into Room 507 and were divided into discussion groups. From then on the students were "on their own." Two advisors listened or commented as they though necessary.

This was very similar to the "expedition" to JFK school in Fremont, where the students did all the talking, and got down to the basics of the racial problem in America today.

Several students from the psychology, American problems and sociology classes went to San Quentin State Prison, where there is a special program, "The Squires."

It is made up of inmates and visiting students. The inmates said the program is designed to help young people; to keep as many as possible from making mistakes that would put them in prison. On a more recent visit the students were split up into two groups.

The views of the inmates reflected the pressures of prison life and the inmates goals (the main goal being to get out of prison).

Anyone interested in further correspondence with the inmates concerning any problem may write to Leo Sheppard, care The Squire Program, San Quentin.

Letters may be anonymous, and the inmates would be glad to help.

Against Terra Nova, Pinky pulled down 20 rebounds, and scored his season's high of 24 points.

JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL will have another district first, March 8: A basketball game between the Jefferson High Faculty All Stars and the San Francisco 49er's football team.

This game promises to be as thrilling as the KYA game. Tickets are being sold by the Block J members for $1.

☆

THIS SEMESTER the Drama Club is taking up three productions, the first to be the one-act play, "Which Is the Way to Boston?"

This cast is entirely of "up-and-coming" talent, because many of the "old stand-bys" are graduating in June.

The next event will be a district-wide one-act play festival at Westmoor March 7. The four schools in the district will present one-act plays.

There will be critics from the area, and each production will be given a rating.

The purpose will be two-fold. It can better the relations between the schools, and professional knowledge can be gained from the critics.

In April, the annual Spring Production will be "The Miser" by Moliere. It is a rollicking three-act comedy to be performed four nights, another first for Jeff.

THE ART DEPARTMENT has had a great deal of excitement this past school year.

In October, three teachers went to the California Art Education Association meeting, at which film-making and jewelry-making were discussed. In November and December such activities as a combination birthday-anniversary party for the teachers, and the decoration of a Christmas tree for the Laguna Honda Hospital were held.

January saw the art club starting the new year with its telephone pole. (A surprise is in store for the school.) Recently, they attended a light and jazz show, and went to the San Francisco Museum.

The topic of this year's contest is Free Enterprise, the Cornerstone of Our Republic. Each speech must be within the five to ten minute time limit. So far the contestants from Jeff are John Spittler, Nancy Martin, and Wendy Woolery.

Asking for More

WELL FOLKS IT'S that time of year again — when all the city workers walk hat in hand to their Personnel Boards and ask for more vacation times, more money, more sick leave, more more.

And each year the P.B. members and city councils liken how they've already conceded too much mores" and hand out such advice as, Gang, you'll just have to tighten those belts this year," or throw in, If we do that we'll be setting a precedent (a FAVORITE of at least one member of the PB)".

The Personnel Board is expected to (for the umpteenith year) ask the city council to lift the Residency Requirement, or at least relax it a little. And for the umpteenith time the council will turn it down with some sainted remark like If D.C. is good enough to work in, it's good enough to live in . . ." And, to a point, that's true. But, golly darn fellows, don't you think perhaps such things as waivers could be granted? (I can just hear that PB guy screaming over my shoulder precedent, precedent" 'til it fills me up to here).

Funny thing about some folks in office, they really yell when the shoe is on the other foot. Take that At-Large election of supervisors . . . These same officials have condemned that part of our County Charter and have insisted on ward-type elections over and over again. But the minute a person tries to point out to them how antiquated that Residency Requirement is . . . they simply turn a deaf ear.

Come on now, do they REALLY think because a person lives in D.C., for example, he won't sneak across the city line and spend some loot?

ONE WAY STREET DEPT. — The D.C. council is still in a tither over last week's open hearing on the one-way, no left turn, do not pass go, and do not collect $200 Dorchester Drive matter, in which some 55 irate (and otherwise upset) residents of the city participated — backed by petitions with some 1,000 names.

As it stands now, Dorchester Drive is partially one way (for six homes) southbound, with the remainder two way, and a no left turn" sign installed on Alemany Boulevard. Confused? So are we! The situation was created in an effort to cut down on traffic using Dorchester as a thru-way between Alemany and Southgate, thus avoiding the shopping center and apartment traffic. And it has worked (we're told) slicing vehicular traffic from about 3,200 cars down to less than 2,500 — a sizeable drop.

But the residents of the area are screaming because of the inconvenience. They have to detour several blocks around the Westlake area to get home, they so informed the City Council in a two-hour discussion. Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett says safety was the key factor in the council's determination to do something on Dorchester; that the partially one-way street is on a trial basis; and that other means will be tried, including installation of a stop sign, and perhaps limited parking.

The turn" sign is owned and operated by the State Department of Highways, however Alemany Boulevard will revert to the city in two months.

Meanwhile, it seems at least one council candidate is attempting to make a platform out of the one-way street. We were assured by a Dorchester Drive resident (who attended the hearing) she hopes this thing won't turn into a political football." Appears it already has!

☆ ☆ ☆

MEDICALL DEPT — Joe Schultz out of hospital with his leg all plastered up just like those Olympic ski champs. Joe was operated on for a knee injury suffered in WWII (Whadayamean, you don't remember that many wars back?) . . . Pacifica policeman Charles Roberts proud parent of baby girl. Mother doing fine at Mary's Help Hospital; father reported doing badly at Pacifica PD. Worry, worry.

☆ ☆ ☆

LET HENRY DO IT — If you think Birthday" sounds a little off key, then listen to the duet of Henry Doelger and Bruno Scatena. All we can say is: It was kind of them to sing Happy Birthday to Mrs. Faustina Conci on her 90th celebration last week. It's a good thing Henry builds homes and Bruno cooks. They'd NEVER make it as singers. (PS. Neither would most of the other 55 guests, including You Know Who).

☆ ☆ ☆

AND SPEAKING OF Henry Doelger (doesn't everybody?) He WILL NOT bring his beautiful new yacht (Westlake Three) to the U.S. He can't find a place to park" it, Mr. Doelger claims. And after we got an invite for lunch on board, wouldn't ya know it!

☆ ☆ ☆

OVERHEARD DEPT — A former member of a local board to a friend: I guess I just didn't know how to play their kind of politics." Remark to D.C. Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett: Quiet, or I'll hide your scissors and you won't be able to cut any more ribbons. Then what'll you do for work?"

Civilization Story

To a lover of good books the last page of the last volume of Will and Ariel Durants' Story of Civiliation marks a sad farewell.

After ten volumes, Mr. and Mrs. Durant say goodbye to the readers who have been with them all the way.

"So we end our survey . . . we have completed, as far as we could go, this Story of Civilization, and though we have devoted the best part of our lives to the work, we know that a lifetime is but a moment in history, and that the historians' best is soon washed away as the stream of knowledge grows."

"The Story of Civilization" will never be washed away. It is at once interesting and informative. Each volume glows with action. Through it the nobles, the warriors, the priests, the teachers and most of all the common people live again.

In volume ten, the misery of the French prior to their revolution is pictured in horrifying terms. Old Samuel Johnson stalks the streets of London, Burke and Pitt fill the halls of Parliament with beautiful oratory — Frederick the Great, Maria Theressa, Catherine the Great, Joseph II and hapless Stanislas Poniatowski fight for empires. It is a bright ending to the entire series.

VOLUME ONE is Our Oriental Heritage — The Boston Transcript called it "not merely the ancient history book of the year. It is the ancient history book of all time."

After reading Volume Two — The Life of Greece — Clifton Fadiman called for an immediate tribute. Volume III — Caesar and Christ — banished from me, at least, a thousand false conceptions about the birth of Christianity and the often pictured debauchees of the Roman Empire.

Volume IV — The Age of Faith is filled with descriptions that are not quickly forgotten. The English kings emerge as tall golden men, the French kings as men of great purpose — the clergy as dedicated scholars.

Of Volume V - the Renaissance, Orville Prescott wrote "never have I read a book about the Renaissance which is so concise and so comprehensive, so informative and so lively as Dr. Durants."

THE REFORMATION — Volume IV — has been called a bright pageant of a golden age. It is filled with spice that makes the whole survey sparkle.

Of all the volumes "The Age of Reason Begins" is my favorite. In it I meet some people I should love to know. Shakespeare, Bacon, Rembrandt, Franz Halls, Queen Elizabeth, King Henry of Navarre — each is described; the works of each are analyzed in light of the times that make them possible.

Volume VIII pictures a golden age when Louis XIV ruled in object pomposity. Volume IV and X account for the rise of the age of enlightenment that made it possible for the modern world to come forth.

As a reader I met the Story of Civilization in 1935 when my high school English teacher gave it to me to read for a report. I was "hooked." My imagination quickened, my sense of beauty grew larger. I've been with the Durants ever since.

Lost Abyssianian Cat

THIS IS a rare Abyssinian cat, lost recently in the Westlake area when he darted out a door at 1081 Skyline Boulevard February 12. "Sabu," as he's known, has a ticked fur and the ruddy color of a wild cat. Several trips to the area by owner, Eleanor Lucas, to locate the German cat have proved in vain. Any information on the animal may be relayed to 415-761-3777 or 359-3852. The last of his line, he is irreplaceable.

'Character Assassination'

No one has threatened Mort Sahl's life yet but he's being slowly exterminated by character assassination and an almost total boycott by club owners and television producers.

Luckily, San Francisco audiences appreciate what Mort has to say and during his next five weeks' appearance there, beginning Monday night, his camp followers will spread the word in his behalf. The comic was at his professional peak when John F. Kennedy was assassinated. They were friends, but more than that, the mutually admired each other. He's making it his life's work to find out what really happened, he says.

MORT ISN'T THE ONLY PERSON IN THIS COUNTRY who isn't satisfied with the Warren Reports. That disbelieving multitude increases every day. He has become their spokesman, through the medium of comedy, nightclubs and the entertainment field. It's cost him a lot but his purpose gets stronger every day. Now he's completed a book, with the tentative title, "Curse the Darkness." You can bet it won't be a polite novel, that's not Mort's "bag." But it will contain some truths, some stark opinions and shocking conclusions about what has happened in America in the last ten years.

"The indifference of good men changed this country and all those who beat their chest yelling 'I wanna get mine.' The right wingers say America's earth is scorached. The left wingers say there was nothing there anyway. And I say, it was the Garden of Eden. Everything's gonna be alright, though, if we can just get the country back from Central Intelligence," he contends.

Last year he had asuccessful television show out of Los Angeles and did 15 hours a week on radio for a long run. Then he went to work for James Garrison, the district attorney in New Orleans, whose extensive investigation into the Kennedy assassination has shocked the nation with its findings. His career as an entertainer almost ended right there.

"I'm having a better time associating with Mark Lane and Jim Garrison than I ever did with Paul Newman and Marlon Brando. Actors are always telling me they'd like to say the things I'm saying but they have a wife and kids. I wonder what kind of a legacy they'll leave those kids," he added.

'Living' Education

WE can see how a school teacher-administrator's family can get wrapped up in education. It stands to reason.

But the Floyd Gonella family "lives school" even more than you'd expect.

For instance, Dr. Gonella, principal of Daly City's Thornton high school, recently concluded his quest for his doctorate at UC, Berkely.

This climaxed six years of work on weekends, nights and after-school afternoon hours, without the now-required three semesters on campus.

But, Floyd hasn't been alone in this type of educational advance.

His wife, Carol, attends USF law school at night. She already holds an AB in pre-law.

Floyd says his youngsters—two boys and a girl—have a pretty keen interest in schooling, too. What was it he said about that? The Romper Room on TV?

Re-Classification Of Fire-Rating Sought– Fire Insurance Less?

Daly City officials have asked the American Insurance Association to reclassify the city's fire rating downward from class five to class three.

If approved, the new classification could mean an approximate ten per cent savings in fire insurance premiums for homeowners.

City manager Edward Frank said he hopes to "hear from them" within three months regarding a new inspection of city facilities.

Daly City has been in the class five category since 1961 when it was reclassified by the AIA (formerly the National Board of Fire Underwriters) from a lofty class seven, following a systematic inspection of the area. Prior to that inspection the city had not been studied by the AIA since 1958.

Since 1961 Daly City has worked toward downgrading the classification of the city by installing new water mains, hydrants, storage facilities for water, personnel and equipment.

"The principal areas of concern during these inspections is structures, water and personnel," Frank said.

Actually the AIA uses a nine point system during their inspections, including:

Structural conditions; age and height of buildings; codes; water systems and supply; climate and earthquakes; personnel and equipment; alarms and fire prevention; radio (fire and police) and streets and traffic flow.

And while the city cannot control the climate (fog-wet) or the lingering possibility of an earthquake, it has improved facilities in other areas, Frank noted.

Water facilities, such as the new 10 million gallon storage tank at Serramonte (which will serve many parts of the city) is on the credit side of the ledger as far as the AIA is concerned, along with the purchase of new fire equipment and the addition of personnel since the last inspection.

"We could probably spend more money and buy more equipment, thus lowering the fire classification further," Frank said. "However, as it stands now this just wouldn't make good dollars and sense."

For example, the city could purchase more fire equipment and the personnel to man it. And this move might lower the fire rates ten cents, but at the same time the expense would likely result in a 15-cent hike in property taxes.

Fire losses in Daly City during 1967 were some $284,000 — down from the $295,263 the year before.

The Termite Panic

Termites, feeding on wood, cause millions of dollars of damage each year in virtually every section of the country. Responsible companies offer effective methods for combating termites, and homeowners who deal with them will find their solution to any termite problems. But as in every industry, there are unethical, incompetent and downright dishonest companies who prey on the gullible public. They arouse a sense of panic in the unwary and seldom provide the protection they promise.

Most property owners panic when told termites have invaded their home. The National Pest Control Association advises the homeowner not to panic. It is such panic buying of termite control and unawareness of the manner of termite control that keeps quack operators going.

TERMITE CONTROL should be considered as another repair that is necessary to maintain a house in sound structural condition. Many householders are sufficiently skilled to do minor repair jobs, but few are able to effectively cope with termite damage. Damage occurring in the heavier structural members of a building is a job only for the experts.

National Pest Control Association recommends that the houseowner purchase his termite control service with the same care and discrimination he would use in the purchase of any other service for his property.

Always deal with a reliable and established firm. Get advice from your Better Business Bureau, your county agricultural agent or your state college of agriculure.

Beware of the salesman who represents himself as "an inspector" or a "government inspector." There are NO SUCH THINGS in termite control!

Beware of an operator whose price is ridiculously low when compared to other firms who bid on the job. Some operators, while attempting to do an honest job, simply lack the technique and training to provide effective control.

BEWARE of a service whose cost is based on the number of gallons of chemical material used. This is often the sign of an unscrupulous operator, since chemicals are a comparatively minor part of the cost of a thorough control job.

Check the references and upon the reliability of the termite service you are considering.

Investigate before you invest!

Trend to Co-education

Sarah Lawrence College, a women's institution since its founding, became co-educational with the admission of six male transfer students. Twenty men or more are expected on the Bronxville, N.Y., campus next fall, and when housing has been built for them, many more are expected to enroll.

The alumnae may bemoan the end of the college's all-female tradition, but the change is one of a series of moves toward co-education by private institutions, principally in the East.

Harvard, Columbia and Brown have had their coordinate women's colleges — Radcliffe, Barnard and Pembroke — for many years, but recently many other colleges have looked fondly toward joining forces with the opposite sex.

Yale, long a bastion of masculinity, wooed Vassar and lost, but is thinking of adding a women's college — and Vassar plans a men's college. Kenyon College in Ohio will open a women's college next fall and Hamilton College in Clinton, N.Y., is building Kirkland College for women.

Princeton, where undergraduates have long grumbled about the absence of women and where an attempted merger with Sarah Lawrence collapsed last year, is considering new plans that will produce Tigresses as well as Tigers.

Co-education, whether achieved by the integration of the opposite sex into the student body, the addition of a coordinate college or the sharing of some classes and facilities, offers advantages.

Private women's colleges, particularly, stand to gain financially. Most of their graduates marry and have children, and their husbands' financial loyalties obviously are to their own alma maters.

With a few exceptions, women's schools do not now have the financial resources to provide a comprehensive educational program; libraries are often small, laboratories non - existent and course offerings scanty.

But women's colleges often offer specialized courses of study, particularly in the fine arts, that men's colleges cannot match, despite their overwhelming financial advantage.

Perhaps the best rationale for co-educational study was offered by President Esther Raushenbush of Sarah Lawrence. "It is an academic asset," she said, "for young men and young women to deal on the facts of life together, whether they are studying philosophy, psychology, sociology or anything else."

A Sarah Lawrence senior put it more succinctly: "Women's minds work differently than men's."

PHIL LEHR was flattered when a group of prominent California civic officials recently held their dinner meeting party in the elegant Wellington Room of his Steakery in downtown San Francisco. The officials were A. L. Coffey, Chief of Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, Department of Justice; O. J. Hawkins, Deputy Director; Richard Morrison, Police Chief of Claremont; Orval Davis, Chief of El Monte Police; and Max Elliot, Chief Communications Engineer of Orange . . . The Peninsula Women's League held their annual bowling tournament at Millbrae's King's Bowl, last week, and the adjacent Blue Peacock restaurant and lounge facilities recorded record breaking days. The ladies took over the entire complex for the Friday, Saturday and Sunday matches, and compliments should go to the organizers for their well-planned gathering.

Fred Clark "Joins" The Finocchio Cast

Fred Clark, the bald-headed comedy star of TV and motion pictures, made a real hit with patrons at Finocchio's when he graciously went on stage at the end of the revue of female impersonators to congratulate the performers. And then, to the delight of both the cast and spectators, he delivered a brief, tricky dance step. After which, Clark, a one-time vaudeville performer himself, signed several autographs.

Villa Chartier And Lanai Are Traditional

The Villa Chartier and Lanai restaurants are, without a doubt, two of the "first name" restaurants on the Peninsula. Top quality, cheerful surroundings and years of experience in catering to the public have gone into making these San Mateo establishments dine out traditions

THIRD STRAIGHT

S.S.F. Wins NPL Cage Crown Again

For the third consecutive year, Bill Purceli's South San Francisco Warriors have won the North Peninsula League Basketball championship.

Despite being held to their lowest point-output of the year, the Warriors came through with a 47-44 victory over Westmoor High School, the only team left which had a shot at the champs.

In other NPL action, Oceana got by Half Moon Bay, 66-52 and Jefferson defeated El Camino, 77-66.

After a pitiful first half offense by both squads, which still gave SSF a 21-14 intermission advantage, the Rams and Warriors settled down to a hotly contested second half. Twice during that time the Warriors held eight-point bulges only to lose ground to the stall-trained Rams.

SSF forward Alex Smith, who grabbed 20 rebounds, broke a 40-all tie with one of his 11 free throws with five minutes left to go Westmoor's Gary Soules put the Rams on top at 42-41 with a layin. Again the lead changed hands when SSF's Steve Murphy tipped in a missed shot.

Then with Westmoor working the ball about 30 feet from the basket Smith intercepted a pass and raced courtlength for a bucket. Two free throws by Navis Thompson gave the Rams their last gasp as they pulled to within one at 45-44.

But Smith again hit from the charity stripe. Westmoor had one more shot at it but threw the ball out of bounds with 15 seconds to go. They fouled guard Bruce Brian, who missed his free throw, but forward Dick Young squeezed into the lane and was intentionally fouled with just two seconds left. He hit the first, missed the second and before the Rams could get the ball downcourt the game was over.

"We forced them into crucial turnovers at the last minute," said Purceli. "Our offense wasn't working real well but we hit from the line and controlled the boards when we had to."

SSF did win the game from the line despite missing 14 free throws. They connected 23 times, for almost half their entire offense, while the Rams were getting just eight charity points. Turnovers did have a lot to do with the outcome as the Rams threw the ball away four times in the last 90 seconds. Three of those four times the Warriors scored.

The game, watched by a capacity audience at Westmoor, was blessed with the usual montage of Herculean-lunged parents and had the added attraction of a halftime show that featured a stink-bomb which left a lingering odor throughout the third quarter of action.

Twice last season the Warriors lost to Westmoor on their way to the NPL title. This season was a complete reversal as the Warriors, now 18-1 over-all, dominated league play all year.

Jefferson High School ended up with a 7-5 league record after its win over El Camino yesterday. It was the fourth meeting between the two teams and the fourth win for the Indians.

Center Tom Sellers paved the way for the Indians with 21 points before fouling out in the last period. Forward Tony Schrock helped control the boards and also worked for 14 points.

The game wasn't as close as the final score. The Indians built up a 19-point lead in the second period and held that margin until the reserves frittered it away in the closing moments.

El Camino got 17-point performances from Bill Godkin and Jerry Burke while Steve Jones added another 15. But again the inability of the Colt front line to score proved fatal for Warren Hagberg's crew.

Half Moon Bay built up a 10-0 lead, led by 26-25 at the half, but fell prey to apunishing 25-point third quarter output by Oceana to lose their tenth game of the year.

Cougar Tom Pacheco continued to set scoring records as he poured through 27 points

Tri-City Tourney

D.C. Takes Two All-Star Titles—But Loses Third

Daly City captured the seventh and eighth grade divisional titles in the Tri-City Tournament Day last week, but lost out in the sixth grade competition to a talented South San Francisco team.

In sixth grade competition, the Daly City All-Stars managed to pick up wins from Pacifica with the Daly City I team defeating the Pacifica I team, 10-6, and the Daly City II crew edging the Pacifica II team, 9-5.

Both South San Francisco teams proved too strong for the Daly City Stars, however, as they picked up wins of 16-8 and 10-5.

Both seventh grade All-Star teams from Daly City played outstanding basketball as they captured wins from South San Francisco by the scores of 14-7 and 12-6 and from Pacifica by the scores of 22-6 and 14-8.

In final eighth grade tournament play, the very powerful Daly City teams once again swept all four contests as they defeated South San Francisco 23-11 and 14-12 and Pacifica 21-8 and 32-8.

Outstanding performances for Daly City Teams were turned in by:

6TH GRADE — Bruce Katuna (BYA), 6 points; Mike Crittendon (OLPH), 5 points; Rick Banzet (PAL), 4 points; Pat McVeigh (OLM), 3 points.

7TH GRADE — Chuck Collondrez (PAL), 11 points; Eugene Ghilarducci (BYA), 9 points; Bob Payne (PAL) 9 points; Gary Smith (PAL), 8 points; Gavin Long (PAL), 6 points.

8TH GRADE — Bob McLennan (PAL), 14 points; Jim Wyatt (APL), 10 points; Gary Stoller, 11 points; Ted Grey, 10 points; Steve Webb (BYA), 8 points; Ken Greene (PAL), 7 points.

Broga Comes Through For Crestmoor

By JOHN HORGAN

It was a long time coming but Crestmoor High School has finally notched its first Mid-Peninsula League baseketball victory of the campaign — and none too soon.

With just one game remaining on their schedule, that with Burlingame tomorrow night, the Falcons had little time to waste in getting on the win side of the ledger before the season runs out.

Their 79-63 triumph over sixth-place Mills yesterday marked Crestmoor's second win two seasons in the MPL. The Falcons had lost all ten of their prior 1968 contests until yesterday.

Coach John Christgau, whose club has been lacking just one more solid ballplayer for the past two campaigns, said that, "We thought we should have won a couple more games this year, but we always needed that one more man."

However, in iron man center, Don Broga, Christgau this year has what amounts to about 1½ men.

The 6-3 pivot man, the MPL's leading rebounder and one of its top scoreres, displayed again yesterday why some room on the all-league team may have to be made for him even though he played for a cellar outfit.

Playing with bone chips in shooting hand, Broga grabbed off 27 rebounds and netted nine assists on bullet passes which began — and nearly completed — innumerable Falcon fast breaks. He scored just five points and fouled out with about 1½ mintues left in the game — but his contribution, as usual, was immense.

"I'd have to say that Don is probably the strongest full-court passer in the area," asserted Christgau after the win. To illustrate his point Christgau mentioned that his center tried out for baseball last year and threw the ball so hard and so fast that he dented helmets, backstops and possibly some athletes on the Falcon diamond.

"When our players catch his passes they sometimes can't believe it," Christagau added. "Really, his hands are almost too big for anything but a basketball."

And Broga got some help yesterday from three of his teammates as the Falcons ran up an early 11-point lead in the first quarter, stretched it to one of 18 markers in the fourth period and then coasted in easily.

Randy Powell, Rick Tonini and Tony Snethen combined for 67 points between them, with Snethen's 26 taking high point honors.

Geof Kuchlenz totalled 18 for Mills while John Schilling added 16.

Mills did not have the services of either of its starting guards, Dan Marmenta and Rene Durazzo.

JEFFERSON PROTEST IS DENIED

North Peninsula League commissioner Bob Kennedy has denied the protest lodged by Jefferson High School in the recent Jeff-South San Francisco basketball encounter.

The Warriors won that game when center Steve Venters put through a 25-foot bank shot after taking a court-length pass with just one second left on the clock. Indian coach Mic Kelly had protested that the clock had not started when Venters first touched the ball.

Kennedy noted in his reply that the two officials had not used their option to reverse any act by the official timer and thus had accepted the final score and allowed the disputed shot.

Bruno Rec Meet Set February 28

The February regular meeting of the City of San Bruno Park and Recreation Commission will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday, February 28, in City Hall Council Chambers.

LE PACINI

That Ballpark...

We almost stood up and cheered, recently, when San Francisco mayor Joe Alioto said he was going to look into the possibilities of a sports complex — which would include a baseball stadium — roughly in the South of Market area. He called Candlestick Park a "white elephant" and said that he saw no reason why baseball fans in the area should have to put up with it.

True, it would be like throwing X million dollars away, but then sometimes I think some city governments do that all the time, for less worthwhile projects.

Any citizen who's ever spent any time at all in San Francisco knows the Candlestick area to be at least one of the windiest portions of the city; certainly, one of the most remote.

A South-of-Market stadium would have been centrally located, near transportation, restaurants, lodging and shopping, in a good weather belt, and a sports complex would have provided a lovely reason for cutting a swath through the slums.

Charley Graham built Seals Stadium with the idea of eventually adding a second deck — it was originally DESIGNED for it — and, sources tell us, Graham had worked out a plan with the city whereby he would in the future have an option on the park across the street from the stadium for parking.

We hope Alioto meant what he said. Candlestick Park has brought more national ridicule to this area than BART.

MORE BASEBALL: We were going to entitle this section "Hot Stove League," when we suddenly realized that it's no longer out of season to write about baseball. Spring training is already upon us.

Experts say a team can't win a pennant unless it wins the one-run games and the extra inning tilts. But the Red Sox not only upset the bookmakers last year, they upset the statistics experts. They were seventh in the American League in one-run wins. (.491) and eight in extra inning victories (.417).

They also placed ninth in fielding, but then fielding statistics — as has been pointed out at length in this column — seldom mean a thing. Lee Allen, official historian for the Hall of Fame and one of the game's true experts, has been quoted on the subject of fielding percentages:

"Fielding percentage is almost meaningless, and lifetime fielding is almost never ever published."

Boston, incidentally, did do one thing well which they were statistically supposed to do (outside of winning more games than anybody else in the AL, of course). They led the league in doubleheader wins, with a percentage of .625.

If you're really that statistically oriented, it may interest you to know that in 1967 the American League broke 24 major league records, tied 20, and broke 22 AL standings, while tieing 12. The National League set 15 major league records, tied 20, and shattered 22 NL marks, while tieing 23.

Philadelphia manager Gene Mauch, is discussing the upcoming NL pennant race recently, picked the Reds to win and analyzed the Giants thusly:

"Something will happen in San Francisco. It always does."

And to finish baseball for the week, did you know that Smokey Joe Wood and Rogers Hornsby started their professional baseball careers as Bloomer girls? Of course, if you didn't know it, the original Bloomer Girls teams usually consisted of at least four or five men dressed as girls. The fans knew it, but it was a lot of fun . . . for the fans, for the fans!

IF YOU NOW HAVE an idea of how much the Warriors miss Nate Thurmond, imagine what they'd be doing without Clyde Lee, who is probably only about the fifth best pivot in the NBA. He's already got himself firmly planted well into the top ten in rebounds.

A recent NBA computerized evaluation, incidentally, showed that rebounds account for 76.2 per cent of the game-winning formula.

In nine professional championship contests, Starr has completed 63.1 per cent of his passes for an average of 8.6 yards per attempt, 13.6 per completion, one TD toss per every 13.7 attempts, and only one interception per every 68.7 pass attempts.

Now compare with his lifetime regular seasons stats, which show a pitching percentage of 57.2, for an average of 7.8 per attempt, 13.7 per completion, a TD pitch every 20.9 passes, and an interception every 25.5 attempts. Great statistics, indeed, but almost dwarfed by his comparable pressure game marks.

★ ★ ★

Sudden thought: Ever notice that relatively few athletic stars ever make good coaches or managers? Could it really be that those who can, do; those who can't . . . . ?

★ ★ ★

BET YOU FIGHT FANS didn't know that Sugar Ray Robinson and Henry Armstrong fought each other. That's right, in 1943, with Ray on the way up and Henry on the way down, the Sugar Man took a ten round decision over old Perpetual Motion in New York.

★ ★ ★

Local Notes: Capuchino High Grads will soon be dominating the S.F. State Gator gymnastics team. Tom Fester is returning for his senior year and already in second in Gator records for most individual points scored in a career, and has dead aim on the FWC All-Around title. He's being joined this year by freshman Bruce Lybrand, also an All-Around expert out of Cap.

From Terra Nova, sophomore Rich Byfield is being counted on heavily to pile up points for the swim team in his Butterfly and distance specialties, and Storm Goranson is back to defend his Far Western Conference heavyweight wrestling title.

★ ★ ★

TAG END: If you REALLY like miscellaneous bits of weird information, keep this one in mind: A German named Leuben, whom the Police Gazette claims is still alive and dealing in South America, once wagered he could turn up a shuffled pack in a certain order on mere chance. He turned cards 10 hours daily for 20 years. On his 4,246,028 try he finally made. He had in the meantime gone insane.

WCAL Champions Next For S.S.F.

Completing their most rewarding campaign since entering the North Peninsula League, the South San Francisco Warriors now face the unenviable task of taking on the West Catholic Athletic League champs next Friday night at College of San Mateo.

The Warriors, who took their third straight NPL title under Bill Purcell's guidance last Wednesday, made it a perfect 12-0 Friday with a smashing 92-68 victory over Oceana's Sharks. The win gave the Warriors a 19-1 over-all record with the only loss being to Washington High of San Francisco, a team they had beaten earlier in the year by 27 points.

Westmoor, meanwhile, ended its season with a 74-48 victory over Terra Nova while El Camino outlasted a stubborn Half Moon Bay squad, 86-68. Westmoor's Rams had their best season of the decade with an over-all 16-4 record and a 10-2 record in conference action.

It was no contest from the start as the champion Warriors seemed determined not to blemish their league record. Quickly running up a 20-point lead, they put the clamps on high-scoring guard Tim Sershan and had outscored the Sharks by 22 points at halftime.

Forward Alex Smith paved the way for the NPL champs by scoring the first 10 Warrior points. Sophomore guard Mike Larios also performed admirably in that first half with seven assists, almost all in a string of fast breaks, and two blocked shots.

Sershan, who needed 26 points to break the all-time NPL scoring record, fell short although tying for high-point honors with Smith.

"We wanted to win this one even though the title was already ours," said Purcell. "The boys didn't want to see any game on the loss side of the standings. We were loose and just played good, running basketball all the way through the game."

Westmoor's Rams were just too much for the smaller and less experienced Tigers from Terra Nova. The Ram starters played just about one half of the game before the subs took over and kept Terra Nova at a distance.

Center Gary Soules put the Rams in front with 11 of his 18 points in the first quarter of action. Both Soules and sub forward Jim Lewis controlled the boards with guard Joe Anibale passing the Tigers silly with six first-half assists.

It was a strange batle at Half Moon Bay last night with a career-high being scored by two players. HMB's Tom Pacheco closed out his high school career with a tremendous 39-point output while senior guard-forward Bill Godkin also ended up with a stunning 38-point performance.

Pacheco, a center, got the majority of his shots from the outside, including a 30-foot set shot, while the smaller Godkin who usually has the outside touch, dominated the inside action with virtually all of his 18 field goals coming inside the eight-foot mark.

The Colts pulled out to a quick 20-point lead and stayed at that range until the final period when the Cougars came to within five points. But Warren Hagberg's charges quickly pulled away once more, with excellent free-throw shooting, as the Cougars were unable to get any closer.

The free-throw shooting for both teams was superior. El Camino hit on 12 of 15 while HMB connected on 15 of 17 tries.

Adult Hunch Play Set In Daly City

The Daly City Recreation Department sponsored Adult Three Man Hunch Basketball League opened last week at the War Memorial Community Center with six teams competing against each other.

The Half Pints won their league opener as they took a thrilling overtime game from the Last Six by the score of 63-59 behind the 26 point scoring of Bill King. Verne Buer led the Last Six squad as he pouredin 27 points.

The Burners defeated the Warriors 40-23 as Elmore Youngblood and Johnny Butler scored 12 points apiece to lead the winners. Lonnie Ross sparked the Warriors as he scored 9 points.

In the final action, the Chargers slipped past the Nauscators by the score of 42-38 behind Norm Angell's 27 points. Vic Kulik hit the hoop for 19 points to lead the Nauscator's assault.

Brush After Meals

Brushing after meals not only helps to remove food particles from which decay acids are formed, but also helps to remove the bacteria that are responsible for producing the acid. So get in the habit of brushing after every meal.

Brush Thoroughly

Even if you brush after every meal, success in preventing decay won't be achieved unless you brush thoroughly. Use a good toothbrush that is in good condition.

Please ask your dentist about proper brushing of teeth.

Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extraction for same; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth. Dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Motorist Tries to Elude Area Patrolmen

Police from four North County cities joined in a search for a South San Francisco man who allegedly tried to run down a police officer after he was stopped for reckless driving early Saturday in Pacifica.

Within two hours after he had abandoned his car on a foggy sidestreet in the Fairmont section of Pacifica and fled on foot, Robert Meyers, 32, of 515 Keoncrest Drive, was apprehended.

Police said Meyers was picked up by a South San Francisco police patrol unit as he walked casually down Westborough Boulevard towards his home shortly after 2:30 a.m. today.

According to authorities, Meyers was first spotted speeding through Daly City and Officer Martin Lively started pursuing the suspect. Lively reported he lost the suspect in the fog in the Fairmont area.

Pacifica Police Officers O. B. Hargrave and R. J. Comollo, alerted by the "hot chase" report from Daly City, saw the suspect in his small foreign compact car on a Fairmont sidestreet and took up the chase. After successfully pulling Meyers to the curb, Officer Hargrave got out of the patrol car and approacehd the suspect's car.

As the officer passed in front of Meyer's vehicle, the suspect allegedly stepped on the accelerator and tried to run him down.

Hargrave was knocked to the pavement as the car brushed past him, but was not seriously injured.

The car was found abandoned some three blocks from the scene.

Meyers was charged with assault with a deadly weapon and assault with intent to injure a police officer, following his arrest.

S.S.F. Youth Injured

A young South San Francisco man was injured Thursday when he lost control of a motorcycle and ran off the road on Brentwood Drive.

Police said Louis Mueller, 21, of 210 Pinehurst Street, was taken to Peninsula Hospital after the accident occurred at 11:20 a.m.

He is reported in satisfactory condition.

Mueller had borrowed the motorcycle from a friend, police said, and was not accustomed to operating it.

SALARIES

Beginning salaries of college graduates have increased nearly 30 per cent since 1960, according to the Southern Illinois University Placement Service.

UNDER THE AUSPICES of The Lions Club, the annual student speakers contest was held at the Westlake Clubhouse of the Daly City Park and Recreation Department. A capacity crowd of Lion members and their wives heard a debate on "Free Enterprise — The Cornerstone of Our Republic." Three Westmoor High School students debated the topic. The winner, George Muller, is shown above flanked by Robert Bernicchi, president, Daly City-Colma Lions Club and Miss Maryann Holden, speech teacher at Westmoor and coach of the debating team.

Westmoor Student Wins Lions' Speaking Contest

George Muller, 17-year-old Westmoor High student, carried off top honors at the annual Student Speaker Contest held under the auspices of the Daly City-Colma Lions Club last Wednesday at the Westlake Clubhouse of the Daly City Park and Recreation Department.

Muller, who lives at 15 Lake Vista Avenue, Daly City, was in a three-cornered debate with Stepehn Seager and David Kinkead, fellow students at Westmoor.

The topic, "Free Enterprise-The Cornerstone Of Our Republic" — selected by the International Lions Club-was probed and dissected from angles by the trio of debaters. However critical of some aspects of "Free Enterprise" each of the speakers agreed that if not the "cornerstone," it was most certainly the one great ingredient that made American enterprise distinctly free from restrictions encountered elsewhere in the world of business and trade.

Miss Maryann Holden, Speech Teacher at Westmoor, and coach of the debating team, had carefully prepared the speakers and each had done their own considerable research on "Free Enterprise." Their presentations reflected painstaking research.

Judges were Frank Monte, Jefferson Elementary School District; George Alphin, manager, Daly City Water Department, and members of the Daly City Toastmasters Club. Tellers were Mario Giampoli and David Friedenberg, members of the Daly City-Colma Lions Club.

Speaker Muller will next compete at a Lions Zone Contest on Tuesday, March 12, at the Lazy V Restaurant, San Bruno. If he again carries off honors, at the Zone Level, Muller goes on to compete in District and Regional Contests. Winners of the finals, to be held on or about April 12, win scholarships to accredited universities.

Ed Thomasello, chairman of the Daly City-Colma Lions Club contest, fell ill after doing preliminary spadework. Lion Ted Weibel followed through in Tomasello's absence and presented a fine program for a capacity crowd of Lions and their wives.

Sew-and-Show Slated March 1

Of all the "un-sung heroines" of our day, the women who sew for themselves and their children are among the "un-sungest."

An attempt has been made to remedy this situation by the women of the Mater Dolorosa Women's Club.

A sew-and-show fashion show, "Pins 'N Needles," will be held in the Church Hall,Miller and Willow Avenues, South San Francisco, on March 1, at 8 p.m.

The admission will be 50 cents and the public is welcome.

The fashions displayed will be the creations of the models, and of the mothers of models, as there will be children showing off their mothers' talents as well as women showing off their own talents.

The chairman of this event is Mrs. Francis Donahue, with her co-chairman, Mrs. Charles Kerrigan. The narration of this event will be done by Mrs. Robert Lavezzo.

The Program Chairmen are Mrs. Woody Wright and Mrs. Charles Soldani; chairman of models is Mrs. Thomas Welch; set designer is Mrs. William Brady; ticket chairmen are Mrs. Roy Martinez and Mrs. Louis Alvarado; chairman of prizes is Mrs. Harry Plumb, and chairman of refreshments is Mrs. Dean Prince.

Investments Classes Set

The San Mateo YWCA Investments Classes will begin at 7 p.m. today.

Three weekly investment classes will be conducted by Estabrook & Company, member of the New York Stock Exchange, at 45 Southgate Avenue, Daly City, in the conference room.

Phillip Fernandez, the instructor, will cover Investment objectives, investment approaches, leverage, bonds and mutual funds.

There will be a question and answer session at the meetings, and the opportunity will also be available to discuss personal investment goals and how to attain them.

Husbands will be admitted free when accompanied by their wives. The cost for this course is $5. Enrollment is limited.

Fertilizer Talk, Slides For Program

"Something New in Fertilizers" an informative talk with color slides will be presented by Norman R. Ehmann and Robert H. McKeand of Mag Amp Fertilizers, a division of Neil A. Maclean Co., Inc., of Belmont, at the February general meeting of the San Mateo County Rose Society.

Members and guests are invited to the event on Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Baywood School, 600 Alameda de las Pulgas, San Mateo. An open discussion period will follow.

Crestmoor Rehearses 'Madwoman'

One of the largest casts ever to act a play at Crestmoor High has begun rehearsals of the famous Broadway hit, "Madwoman of Chaillot," in preparation for its opening on March 1. Thirty-eight roles are involved in this "comedy fable" as it has been called, since it shuttles nimbly between reality and fantasy.

In the title role is a delightful daft old countess who roams the streets of that fashionable quarter of Paris called Chaillot. The opening scene takes place in one of the world-famed "sidewalk cafes" of Paris. The mad-woman is not mad in the sense of being crazy, but only in being pixilated. She continually wants to return to the romance of an era that is gone.

The play has been an international hit in New York, Paris and London and is considered a classic of the modern theater. Feature roles of the madwoman and her companions will be taken by Cathy Marchan, Lou Ann Lazar, Kathleen Fitzgerald, and Karen Hinkle. The leading male roles will be taken by Alan Scofield, Bruce Burton and Robert Fischer. In romantic roles will be seen Fred Barnhardt and Tereal McGinley.

Don't Panic If House Has Termites

By LORENE BEASLEY
Editor of BBB Barometer

Termites, feeding on wood, cause millions of dollars of damage each year in virtully every section of the country. Responsible companies offer effective methods for combating termites, and home-owners who deal with them will find their solution to any termite problems.

But, as in every industry, there are a few companies who deceive the public. They arouse a sense of panic in the unwary and seldom provide the protection they promise.

Most property owners panic when told termites have invaded their home. The National Pest Control Association advises the homeowner not to panic. It is such panic buying of termite control and unawareness of the manner of termite control that keeps poor operators going.

Termite control should be considered as another repair that is necessary to maintain a house in sound structural condition. Many householders are sufficiently skilled to do minor repair jobs, but few are able to effectively cope with termite damage Damage occuring in the heavier structural members of a building is a job only for the experts.

National Pest Control Association recommends that the houseowner purchase his termite control service with the same care and discrimination he would use in the purchase of any other service for his property.

Always deal with a reliable and established firm. Get advice from the Better Business Bureau, the county agricultural agent or the colleges of agriculture, the group says. Beware of a salesman who represents himself as "an inspector" or a "government inspector." There are no such things in termite control.

Beware of an operator whose price is ridiculously low when compared to other firms who bid on the job. Some operators, while attempting to do an honest job, simply lack the technique and training to provide effective control, it is reported.

Beware of a service whose cost is based on the number of gallons of chemical material used. This is often the sign of an unscrupulous operator, since chemicals are a comparatively minor part of the cost of a thorough control job. Check the references and the reliabiliay of the termite service.

Investigate before you invest says the BBB.

Brunan Not Boat Owner

Relatives of Albert Tolomei of San Bruno, who lost his life in a boating accident Sunday afternoon off the Golden Gate, said today that he was not the owner of the boat which capsized. The boat was the property of his cousin, Roger Rothmuller, who was also aboard.

Tolomei, 23 years old, is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Tolomei; a daughter, Louise, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tolomei, 116 San Luis Avenue, San Bruno.

memo from Mat Reis

"we put ourselves in your shoes"

After all . . . our salesmen and staff are people, just like yourselves. People with families, children in school and faced with the burdens of providing. Nobody has money to throw away. Our people have this in mind when discussing the purchase of a new or used car with a customer. They treat people the way they like to be treated . . . listen to the problems and questions and honestly do their very best to arrive at the best possible deal.

This may be one reason why we see so many of the same folks coming back to us again . . . and bringing friends and relatives. The Golden Rule is a way of life here. And it works.

Mat Reis

These are folks

. . . much like yourself . . . folks who shopped, compared and bought their cars here

we could tell you a dozen reasons why, but they'd rather do it themselves

MR. NED VITALE of DALY CITY: "I DIDN'T BELIEVE IT AT FIRST!"

"I bought this car from Gateway Chevrolet primarily because I needed a car in my work. I do a terrific amount of driving and I got a good deal at Gateway Chevrolet. The first trip I made they offered me a deal and I thought it wasn't a good one. I thought I should shop around. I even went into downtown San Francisco and down along the peninsula, and I came back to Gateway Chevrolet. They gave me a terrific deal. I saved at least $200.

MRS. CAUDILL of SAN FRANCISCO: "I SAVED BETWEEN $800 AND $900!"

"My husband, Reverend Caudill and I, had been looking for a new car for quite a while and our neighbor bought at Gateway, and told us about his good deal. So we thought we would try it. We got a very good trade for our old car. We have talked to other people and I think we got a very good deal . . . between $800 and $900 maybe. It was certainly worth shopping here at the New GateWay Chevrolet."

MRS. MIKE VAIL of SAN MATEO: KNOWS TRUE VALUE!

"Being in San Mateo we are close to most of all the Chevrolet dealerships. We tried them all and found we got the best deal here at Gateway Chevrolet. We certainly saved money. My husband deals in cars so we knew when we were getting a good deal. We were offered more money here than any other dealership for our trade-in, plus the price was much lower than anyplace else."
